When I set out to sell my farm, it was important to me that it went to another farm family who would care for the land as my family had. It was a struggle to hold on to my small grass-fed beef farm for as long as I did, persisting through pressures for farms like mine to ‘get big, or get out.’

Article:  https://farmland.org/on-finding-a-farmer-guest-blog-sandy-gordon-landowner-retired-farmer/